2. CEC Lifetime Achievement Award
3. Lynn Ziraldo Advocacy Award
4. Teacher of The Year Award by Chapter
5. Educational Leader of The Year Award by Chapter
6. Paraprofessional of the Year Award by Chapter
7. Subdivision or Chapter Member of the Year Award
8. The President's Award to a Partner in Education
9. Business, Agency and Community Award by Chapter
10. YES I CAN PARENT Award by Chapter
11. Kenn Kloby TEACHER OF THE YEAR Award
12. Irene Mackowski Educational Leader of the Year Award
13. Post Secondary Adult Student Award
14. YES I CAN STUDENT Awards

Nomination Forms are available on the Ontario CEC website.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

1. TIMELINES AND COMMUNICATION

- a) Nominations for provincial awards must be forwarded to the Chair of the Ontario CEC Awards Committee by July 31 each year. Please note: Nominations submitted after this date may be considered for the next year.
- b) The Ontario CEC Awards Committee will make its recommendations to the Ontario CEC Board of Directors in August. Recipients selected by the committee to receive awards/recognitions shall be notified in writing by the Ontario CEC Chair of the Awards Committee in September or early fall. The nominator and chapter awards chair will be notified via email at this time.

2. WHO CAN NOMINATE?

- a) Adult Awards: Chapters may submit nominations for most adult awards unless otherwise specified. Please see requirements for each award.
- b) Yes I Can Student Awards: Chapters, Subdivisions, and Ontario CEC members residing outside a chapter area may submit nominations for Yes I Can Student awards.

KENN KLOBY TEACHER OF THE YEAR AWARD

HISTORY:

The Kenn Kloby Teacher of the Year Award was established in 1995 by the Ontario Council for Exceptional Children to honour an outstanding educator.

An individual who teaches children with special needs possesses a great dedication and soon learns that the job entails much more than “educating” in the classroom. He/she brings to the situation a sense of caring and sensitivity towards individual differences and strives diligently to empower children to reach their full potential and to be happy.

“We are what we repeatedly do. Excellence then, is not an art, but a habit.”
Aristotle

The recipient of this award is selected by the Provincial Awards Committee, from among the Provincial Teacher of the Year Award nominees.

The recipient of this award may be considered for the International CEC Teacher of the Year Award.

CRITERIA:

- The recipient must be currently involved in the provision of direct services to students who have disabilities and/or are gifted and talented.
- The recipient should have demonstrated exemplary performance over a period of time as a teacher (or provider of direct services) exhibiting such qualities as sensitivity, innovativeness, imagination, creativity, caring, sense of humour, commitment, ability to inspire, and volunteer work in the community at large. Demonstration of these qualities must be clearly recognized by members of the profession and others knowledgeable of the candidate.
- The recipient should be an appropriately qualified teacher or related specialist as recognized by the Ministry of Education and Training.

TOKEN: An engraved plaque

PRESENTED: At the Annual Provincial Conference

HISTORY:

The Irene Mackowski Educational Leader Of The Year Award was established in 2000 by the Ontario Council for Exceptional Children to honour an outstanding educational leader.

“Successful is the individual who has lived well, laughed often and loved much, who has gained the respect of children, who leaves the world better than they found it, who has never lacked appreciation for the earth’s beauty, who never fails to look for the best in others or give the best of themselves.”

Ralph Waldo Emerson

The recipient of this award is selected by the Provincial Awards Committee, from among the Provincial Educational Leader of the Year Award nominees.

CRITERIA:

All of the criteria set out for the Educational Leader of the Year Award must be met and the candidate must have been a recipient of the Educational Leader of the Year Award in their Region in order to be considered for this award. The recipient must embody the “walk the talk” attitude.

In addition, the recipient should have demonstrated exemplary performance over a period of time as a leader, exhibiting such qualities as:

- A passion for education
- Courage to stand out in a crowd
- A willingness to advocate on behalf of special needs students
- A healthy sense of humour
- A sense of caring and commitment
- A volunteer in the community at large

TOKEN: An engraved plaque

PRESENTED: At the Annual Provincial Conference

REQUIREMENTS:

The presentation of this award is entirely contingent upon there being a suitable candidate and therefore may not be awarded annually.
